

■ Structure clé :

Subject + to be (conjugué) + past participle

→ Le complément d'agent est introduit par "by" (souvent omis s'il n'est pas important)

Les 10 temps au passif

Chaque carte présente la forme active → forme passive

1 · Présent simple

Simple present

Actif :

Tom drives his car every day.

Passif :

The car is driven by Tom every day.

2 · Présent progressif

Present continuous

Actif :

Natty is drawing patterns with a pen.

Passif :

Patterns are being drawn by Natty.

3 · Présent perfect prog.

Present perfect continuous

Actif :

Carlos has been packing his luggages for 10 min.

Passif :

The luggages have been packed by Carlos for 10 min.

4 · Passé simple

Simple past

Actif :

David dug a hole in the sand.

Passif :

A hole was dug by David in the sand.

5 · Past continuous

Past continuous

Actif :

Simon was doing his laundry.

Passif :

The laundry was being done by Simon.

6 · Past perfect

Past perfect

Actif :

Tony had switched on the light, before you came.

Passif :

The light had been switched on by Tony.

7 · Futur simple

Simple future

Actif :

Florian will pet his dog tomorrow.

Passif :

The dog will be petted by Florian tomorrow.

8 · Futur proche

Near future (going to)

Actif :

We're going to repair our car in 10 minutes.

Passif :

The car is going to be repaired in 10 minutes.

9 · Futur progressif

Future continuous

Actif :

You will be reading a book when I arrive.

Passif :

The book will be being read by you.

10 · Les modaux

Modal verbs

Actif :

Veronique should see her sister.

Passif :

Veronique's sister should be seen by her.